

International Visegrad Project Seminar

16-17th January 2025, on-line

We cordially invite everyone from the teaching community on behalf of the Visegrad Fund project team “Structures of uncertainty”: inclusive education in Central and Eastern European countries to the International Visegrad Project Seminar on 16-17 January 2025. We will present: (1) the definition of "inclusive education" from the perspective of each country participating in the project; (2) the challenges of implementing "inclusive education", (3) the research conducted in this area.

The seminar will be held online, detailed information can be found below and on the project website and FB.

The project is dedicated to: academic teachers, secondary school teachers, primary school teachers and kindergarten teachers.

The project team consists of representatives of universities from the V4 - Poland, the Czech Republic, Slovakia and Hungary, who have a similar history in educating children and young people with diverse developmental and educational needs. The crucial experiences were gained through the active role of committed teachers creating education for all.

As part of the project, you will be able to participate in seminars, conferences, and workshops, and get acquainted with the latest research results. We look forward to hearing from you during the meeting, each participant will receive a certificate confirming participation, after registering in advance.
